

HELPING COMMUNITIES IN CAMBODIA AND NEPAL

Introductory Letter From Sponsor to Newly selected child

This year we are suggesting a special “letter” that introduces you to your newly sponsored child.

Your child will read your letter (probably needing a little help) and then send you their own answers to exactly the same questions. It should be a fascinating exchange of contrasting views and cultures.

Please print out this letter template and write your answers to the pre-set questions below. Maybe add a few extra questions of your own that you would like your sponsored child to answer.

Canhelp will give to your child your “letter” plus a blank form with exactly the same table of questions for the child to answer.

If you can enclose a photo of yourself and your family it would be great.

Mail your completed letter and photos to: -
